

1. Who is Cultural Infusion?

Cultural Infusion is an Australian education provider delivering structured, curriculum-aligned Cultural Education programs to schools and organisations across Australia.

We are not an agency. We are an education organisation committed to increasing intercultural understanding, global citizenship and social cohesion.

Cultural Infusion is a UNESCO-recognised organisation and works at a systemic level to promote intercultural dialogue and education.

We reach more than 370,000 students annually through live programs and digital learning resources.

2. What types of programs do you offer?

We offer structured Cultural Education programs across a wide range of artforms and themes, including:

- Dance and movement
- Music and drumming
- Martial arts
- Cultural storytelling
- Language and traditions
- Festivals and celebrations
- First Nations education
- Interfaith dialogue
- Identity and belonging programs
- Social cohesion workshops

All programs are designed for education settings and go beyond performance to include meaningful cultural context.

3. What program structures do you offer?

We offer flexible delivery formats to suit school needs:

- Interactive Cultural Education Workshops (50 minutes)
- Assembly Performances
- Half-Day Programs
- Full-Day Rotational Programs (multiple year levels across the day)
- Festival and Cultural Celebration Formats

We can recommend the most suitable structure based on student numbers, year levels and learning objectives.

4. Are your programs curriculum aligned?

Yes.

Our programs align with:

- Australian Curriculum (ACARA)
- Intercultural Understanding General Capability
- The Arts

- Humanities and Social Sciences
- Civics and Citizenship
- Cross-curriculum priorities
- AITSL standards (where relevant)

Curriculum links and learning outcomes can be provided upon request.

5. What is the Learning Hub?

The Learning Hub is Cultural Infusion's digital platform designed to extend classroom learning. It includes:

- Structured lesson plans
- Worksheets and classroom activities
- Pre- and post-workshop materials
- Cultural background resources
- Teacher support content
- Professional Development modules

The Learning Hub supports sustained intercultural learning beyond a single workshop experience, offered for 3-months free with any booking.

6. Do presenters adapt their programs to different ages and year levels?

Yes.

All Cultural Infusion presenters adapt their programs according to:

- Early Learning, Primary or Secondary levels
- Cognitive and developmental stages
- School context and demographics
- Physical safety considerations
- Learning objectives

7. Can programs be tailored to our school's needs?

Yes.

Programs can be tailored to support:

- Harmony Week
- NAIDOC Week
- Language units
- Religious or interfaith studies
- Identity and belonging units
- Wellbeing themes
- Cultural celebration days
- Curriculum focus areas

Please share your learning goals and we can provide tailored recommendations.

8. What is your pricing?

Pricing varies depending on the workshop and presenter structure.

As a guide:

- 50-minute workshop from $1125 + GST for up to 150 participants (depending on the program).
- For groups exceeding 150 participants, an additional fee from $7.50 + GST per additional student applies.
- Assembly and performance pricing varies based on format and scale.

- Preferred dates
- Desired program or theme

9. Do you offer bundled pricing?

We can structure:

- Multi-session day bookings
- Rotational full-day programs
- Cross-year level bookings
- Festival-style programming

Bundled pricing may apply depending on structure.

10. Are your presenters compliant?

Yes.

All presenters:

- Hold a valid Working With Children Check (WWCC)
- Are experienced in school environments
- Follow structured workshop formats
- Work under Cultural Infusion's educational framework

Cultural Infusion holds:

- Public Liability Insurance
- Professional Indemnity Insurance
- Structured compliance processes

Documentation can be provided upon request.

11. What makes Cultural Infusion different?

Cultural Infusion is not simply a performance provider.
When schools book with Cultural Infusion, they are investing in:

- A structured educational framework
- Curriculum-aligned programming
- A nationally consistent delivery model
- A UNESCO-recognised intercultural vision
- Long-term intercultural learning outcomes
- Extension resources via the Learning Hub

We focus on education, not entertainment alone.
Schools are buying into a broader vision of intercultural understanding, social cohesion and global citizenship.

12. Do you work nationally?

Yes.

We deliver programs across Australia. Presenter availability varies by state.

13. How far in advance should we book?

We recommend booking at least 4–6 weeks in advance, particularly for peak periods such as Harmony Week and NAIDOC Week.

Large-scale programs should be secured earlier.

14. How do we request a quote?

Please provide:

- School name
- Suburb
- Year levels
- Student numbers
- Preferred dates
- Program interest
