Sounds of Country is a 60-minute at-school experience combining First Nations music and storytelling. Cultural educators guide active listening and age-appropriate participation.

Classroom connections

Possible connections include musical pattern, oral storytelling, connection to place and respectful listening. Exact curriculum alignment should be confirmed for the school's jurisdiction and current planning documents.

Preparation

Share year level, access needs and learning intentions before the visit. Prepare students to listen respectfully and explain that not all cultural knowledge is public or appropriate to reproduce.

Planning prompts

What should students understand or be able to do after the experience? Which claims require verification? How will students reflect without being asked to represent a culture? What access adjustments should be discussed with the provider?
