Identity questions

What communities help shape who we are? How can language, family, place and experience influence identity? Which parts of identity are visible, and which may not be visible?

Perspective questions

How might two people understand the same celebration differently? What information would help us avoid assumptions? How can we ask about difference with curiosity and respect?

Reflection protocol

Students privately write, discuss with a partner, then share only what they choose with the group. Teachers should not ask individual students to speak as representatives of a culture.

Planning prompts

What should students understand or be able to do after the experience? Which claims require verification? How will students reflect without being asked to represent a culture? What access adjustments should be discussed with the provider?
